COUNTING COMMITTEE UNSUNG HEROES

For many, many years on Monday mornings, you can find a group of people in the Jewell Room faithfully coming together to count the tithes and offerings given on Sunday morning. And for many, many years this 'Counting Committee' has not been included in our organization of committees. It's a group of retired men who were generally recruited by men already on the committee. For the past 20 years Dewey Reed has been on this 'Counting Committee' and for most of that time, has been the 'head key man'. Dewey was recruited by B.C. Quinn, a long-time deacon, Sunday School Teacher, and all-around great man, to be on the 'Counting Committee'. Dewey is retiring from this 'Committee' and we want to say a heart-felt THANK YOU for his years of ministry and dedication.

Others who currently serve on this committee include: Colbert Beasley, Tommy Hagler, Billy Queen, Jim West and Clemit Williams.

TWO BIG TRIPS PLANNED

Join us on Oct. 21st when our Collette representative presents the San Antonio trip for April 26-30, 2015. Pay your deposit before Oct. 27 to save $100. We'll fly to San Antonio, stay in a luxurious hotel, and visit the Riverwalk, the Alamo, a working dude ranch, the LBJ Ranch, and other attractions. See Frances Young for more information.

BABY FORMULA

We are still trying to meet the goal of 30 cans of powdered formula for Judy Johnson to 'mule' to Ethiopia.
Any brand of powdered formula is accepted, and may be placed in the designated boxes located in the upper & lower foyers until October 8. Judy's phone # is 678-770-0833.

They will know us by our love!

SENIOR ADULTS:

Marion Beaver

RAF enjoyed a delightful meal on Tuesday night. Then we were blessed with singing by the Dewey & Betty Reed family. We had a great time!

The Nursing Home Visitor for September 22-27: Symantha Redwine

STUDENT MINISTRY

Danny Anderson

Students, Parents, and Church Family don't forget you can participate in "See You at the Pole" at the flag pole of a school near you, or be in prayer from home. Meet at the flag pole early this Wednesday. Let's make a statement that the Light is shining strong in our schools! Our students, teachers and administrators need your prayers.
