A SPECIAL OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD STORY...

Here's a heart warming story for those who made shoe boxes for Samaritan's Purse.
In 2000, an 8-year old girl names Joana in the Philippines received a shoebox packed by a 7 year old boy name Tyrel in Idaho. As a result of that box, Joana gave her heart to the Lord. So did her father, who is now a pastor. In 2011, Joana wanted to thank the boy whose gifts transformed her life. She found him on Facebook and they became such friends online that he traveled to the Philippines to meet her. They fell in love, and subsequently were married. Tyrel said, "I knew the toys and other items I put in the box would bring joy to another child. I just didn't know the joy it would bring back to me one day."
